DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendment filed January 3, 2002 (Paper Number 9) has been received and entered. Claims 60, 71 and 75-76 have been canceled, consequently claims 59, 61-70, and 72-74 are pending in the instant application.

Claim Objections

1. The objection of claims 60 and 71 under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim is withdrawn in view of the cancellation of said claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The rejection of claims 62 and 72 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as lacking complete deposit information for the deposit of plasmid pD2 RF-HN (ATCC 75388) is withdrawn in view of Applicant's assurances.

Double Patenting

3. The rejection of claims 59-74 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-17 of U.S. Patent No. 5,968,776 is withdrawn in view of Applicant's filing of a terminal disclaimer, which has been recorded.

4. The rejection of claims 59-74 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-20 of U.S. Patent No. 6,225,091 is withdrawn in view of Applicant's filing of a terminal disclaimer, which has been recorded.

5. The rejection of claim 65 under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 61 is withdrawn in view of Applicant's assertions.

The following new grounds of rejection are applied:

Claim Objections

6. Claims 70 and 72-74 are objected to because of the following informalities: Claims 70 and 72-74 recite non-elected inventions. It is noted that Applicant's assert that claim 70 has been amended to recite the hybrid gene PIV-HN and RSV-F, (page 3 of response filed January 3, 2002). However, no amendment to the claims was submitted. Amendment of the claims as indicated by Applicant's intentions will be sufficient to overcome this objection. Appropriate correction is required.

Specification

7. Applicant's are requested to amend the first line of the specification to recite the appropriate claim of priority.

8. The amendment filed January 7, 2000 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows:

Applicant's have amended the sequence in Figure 5 to recite a new nucleotide sequence at positions 540 and 630, and have further changed the resulting amino acid at the position corresponding to site 630 of the nucleic acid sequence. Each of these changes are deemed new matter. Applicant's assert that these are merely spelling mistakes, however, without support in the originally filed specification to show the correct sequence, these changes are new matter. This objection further extends to the electronically filed copy of the sequence listing. Applicant is required to demonstrate clear support for making the sequence revisions, or cancel the newly added material from both the specification and the electronically filed disk of sequences in the reply to this Office action.

Lastly, it is noted in Applicant's response filed January 3, 2002 (Paper Number 9) that a further IDS is enclosed with respect to the Chanock and Prince et al references. However, this paper appears to have been separated from the response. Applicant's are requested to resubmit the IDS form in response to this Office action.

Claims 59, 61-70, and 72-74 are objected to in view of the amendment to the sequences within the specification, however claims 59, 61-70 and 72-74 are free of the prior art of record.
